

Double braided rope

Double braided line is the only double-layer multif-ply rope in the country made by imported advanced equipment and technology from Germany. With fully-automatically computerized operation program, unique braided structure and excellent technology. It can rise up synthetic performance of rope and cable over 15% and has advantages of low elongation, wearing resistance and simple operation.

Mainly used in fields of naval vessels, ships, ocean transportation, mining operation fishing etc.